

I Married Me a Wife

I MARRIED ME A WIFE 5111 A2

Bill Jackson Arvin, 1941

I married me a wife in the month of June Risselty rasselty Hey John Dabbity Q-U-Ality Risk-ko-kality Risselty rasselty Now now now Married me a wife in the month of June I carried her home by the light of the moon Thats risselty rasselty Now now now.

Married me a wife in the month of May Risselty rasselty Hey John Dabbity Q-U-Ality Risk-ko-kality Risselty rasselty Now now now. Married me a wife in the month of May I carried her home on a lead of hay Thats risselty rasselty Now now now.

Combed her hair Just once a year Risselty rassalty Hey John Dabbity Q-U-Ality Risk-ko-kality Risselty rasselty Now now now. Combed her hair just once a year And called her comb her dearest dear Thats risselty rassalty Now now now.

Swept the floor just once a year Risselty rasselty Hey John Dabbity Q-U-Ality Risk-ko-kality Risselty rasselty Now now now. Swept the floor just once a year And called her broom her dearest dear Thats risselty rasselty Now now now.

I MARRIED ME A WIFE 5111 A2

When she churned she churned in a boot Risselty rasselty Hey John Dabbity Q-U-Ality Risk-ko-kality Risselty rassalty Now now now. When she churned she churned in a boot And for a dash she used her foot Thats risselty rassalty Now now now.

Library of Congress

Butter come out all griddely gray Risselty rasselty Hey John Dabbity Q-U-Ality Risko-kokality Risselty rasselty Now now now. Butter come out all griddely gray It took legs and walked away Thats risselty rasselty Now now now.